The track is truly artistic and expertly done, definitely a top pick for us!

We have reviewed your track, "In The Very Fullness Of Time (feat. Janndelion)." These things were awesome:

This track is chill from the start, with icy synths that oscillate together and create a very expansive soundscape. The beat develops slowly and deliberately, starting with subtle elements and adding more rhythmic elements in the synths. The synths are very well done, with tons of detail and variation of texture that grabs attention and keeps things interesting and dynamic. The vocals are a great element, very well utilized to bring a sense of presence and magic to the music. There really is something very beautiful and atmospheric about this track, every element is very tastefully woven together to create an extremely cohesive composition. We are repeatedly impressed by the small details, such as a moment when the voice says "the sky" but it fades into the distance almost as soon as it appears. The beat that develops is very hypnotic.

This would take you to the next level:

Overall, the song is extremely well crafted and sounds very polished and resolved. There is no specific feedback for improvement.

We thought it was an overall solid release and it is definitely ready to be played on the airwaves.
