

Radio Play Today Song Review

Mondays Are Cancelled

Thu, 14 April 2022

The little details, such as piano flourishes here and there, really work to develop a beautiful melody.

We have reviewed your track, "Wolfsleep." These things were awesome:

The track starts off with some great, drama-building synths and sound effects. There is a very distinct atmosphere, something a little like static and rain, with a dreamlike feeling. There is a sense of constant motion as different synths and sound effects appear throughout the space. The vocals come in with perfect clarity and are well balanced with the music. Overall, the track sounds very professional and well mixed. The melodic singing blends very well with the ambient soundscape, weaving a very intricate and otherworldly melody. "I'm tossin' turnin' in my sleep" is a simple yet effective line that really captures the feeling of the music. There is something abstract and mysterious about the song and lyrics and it works extremely well. The song almost feels like the space between being awake and asleep. It captures the essence of something conscious yet mysterious and hidden in the mind. Overall, the track is extremely intriguing and creative.

This would take you to the next level:

Overall, the song is extremely well crafted and sounds very polished and resolved. There is no specific feedback for improvement.

We thought it was an overall solid release and it is definitely ready to be played on the airwaves.
